

Mood Indigo

Mood Indigo perform as a Duo (Piano and Vocals) and also as a Quartet, with the addition of Double Bass and Drums.

The Four Piece Band

If you love Sinatra, The Rat Pack, Swing and Jazz, Mood Indigo are for you. This band comprises of pianist Nathan Rose, former BBC Young Composer of The Year; Rebecca Downes, critically acclaimed Vocalist who has performed both here and in the US, including the prestigious Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club; Tyrone Bishop, well respected Jazz musician currently working towards a Degree in Jazz at Birmingham Conservatoire and Nick Poyner, a music graduate and highly respected Percussion tutor.

Nathan, Rebecca, Tyrone and Nick together they perform a variety of Jazz and upbeat Swing, ranging from Norah Jones, The Carpenters to The Rat Pack and a whole lot more. For a larger event or venue the four piece with added Double Bass and Drums are the ideal band to make your event go with a swing. If you love Sinatra, The rat Pack, Ella Fitzgerald and a host of Jazz & Swing classics then Mood Indigo as a Four Piece will make your event an event to remember.

The Duo

The Duo is comprised of Pianist Nathan Rose and Vocalist Rebecca Downes. With Rebecca's seductive sultry vocals and exquisite accompaniment from Nathan on piano you will not fail to be impressed.

The Duo of Piano and Vocals are ideal for smaller venues and more intimate performances. They provide a sophisticated, stylish feature for any event. Their classic repertoire is one you will love.

"Mood Indigo have great songs. Rebecca sounds really good, like Karen Carpenter and she was always favourite of mine."

Laurie Holloway \(The Laurie Holloway Orchestra – Strictly Come Dancing\)

"Rebecca's vocals are simply magnificent."
