

Andrea Mann

"A fine singer" – Time Out London

With a smoky style reminiscent of Diana Krall, Andrea is an up-and-coming star on the London jazz scene. She has sung at some of the capital's top jazz venues - including Chelsea's 606 Club and Live! On The Park - and performs regularly at restaurants, bars, weddings and private functions in and around the capital. Working alongside some of the best jazz instrumentalists in the UK, her mellow, accessible sound makes her music the perfect backdrop to parties and other events - but her relaxed, friendly stage presence also makes her a great performer for a listening audience.

Line-up

Accompanied by some of the country's finest jazz musicians, Andrea can be booked as a duo (with piano or guitar), trio (with piano/guitar and double bass) or quartet (with piano/guitar, bass and drums). Other instrumentalists (eg saxophone) available on request.

Repertoire

Andrea's repertoire covers standards from the Great American Songbook, bossa nova classics, pop songs given a jazz feel, and more. Sample songs: It Had To Be You, Let's Fall In Love, The Nearness Of You, S'Wonderful, Secret Love, Agua De Beber, Quiet Nights Of Quiet Stars, Someone To Watch Over Me, East Of The Sun, The Look of Love, New York State of Mind, Your Love Is King.

Testimonials

"Andrea and her band were just fantastic at our wedding reception... They were so friendly and amenable, their music complemented the mood of both the drinks and dinner perfectly - and she looked divine! All our guests were in awe of them - I can't recommend them highly enough."

- Emma Crozier, bride

"Andrea always goes down really well at our venue. She has a very warm presence on stage, sings a great repertoire of songs, and is always highly professional in her work. I fully recommend her."

- Peter Lewis, Owner/Manager, The Battersea Barge (jazz, cabaret and private party venue)

"A sultry voice and a sparkling personality... Andrea is hugely enjoyable. She performed at the festival to critical acclaim, singing both jazz standards and modern songs with flair and style. Definitely someone on the fast track."

- Mark Allen, Director, Dinton Jazz Festival

"We received masses of compliments on Andrea's performance at our wedding party...Her gorgeous, easy-listening voice - accompanied by a brilliant guitar player - was the perfect backdrop to the first part of our evening's celebrations."

- Tracy Thompson and Mathew Toor, bride and groom
