

Tropicalia

Tropicalia is the only production in the UK providing an ultimate and unique Latin/Brazilian show encompassing both music and dance. We pride ourselves for being the first production to have introduced such an innovative performance on the country's burgeoning Latin entertainment scene.

A fusion of passion, glamour and style, this new and exciting show features a fully professional cast of musicians and female performers who have all worked together extensively throughout the world. We raise the energy with our vibrant, visually astonishing performance of dance, music and cabaret and the audience are quick to follow.

Tropicalia production can offer different performance and be available in diverse format. Whether it be a corporate convention, private party, wedding or a special occasion we make sure that the entertainment provided is of the highest quality. When booking with us, your peace of mind is guaranteed. Tropicalia will turn your function from an event into a true spectacle.

Tropicalia is available to perform throughout the UK and overseas.

Influenced by the very best in Latin and Brazilian entertainment, Tropicalia presents a unique fusion of both genres in producing a vibrant routine. A Latin/Brazilian performance to catch the attention with traditional music, dance choreography and costumes. Highly experienced musicians and dynamic female performers combine their artistic talents with a passion that captures the essence of professionalism.

Tropicalia is fronted by Brazilian lead singer and dancer together with two other vocalists and dancers. The trio sing comfortably in Portuguese, Spanish and English as they dance the Latin grooves to such mesmerising effect that the audience are given a taste of what the Rio de Janeiro Carnival or Havana de Cuba club scene has to offer. Tropicalia transforms to demands though, and the basic show can be extended to a bigger scale with up to 20 members available to perform in bigger productions.

Depending on budget and specific requirements we can create custom made Latin entertainment, by organising suggested routines. Tropicalia can offer varied performances to suit differing tastes.

Capoeira show

Rio de Janeiro Carnival batucada with samba drummers and dancers. We find it impossible to select a favourite show. They are all so specific and beautiful. The colour, passion and fun on stage are reflected by the happiness, participation and celebration of the audience.

But tastes vary, and for those who prefer a quiet night of romanticism and melancholy our Latin Jazz quartet provides an option second to none.

Our wide repertoire accurately reflects the cultural nature of our shows. It includes the finest selection of Latin and Brazilian tunes re-arranged to give a touch of originality and own style; Sophisticated

Latin jazz and Brazilian bossa nova (ideal as dinner set), salsa, rumba, cha cha, samba, lambada, samba-funk, samba-reggae and contemporary Latin chart.

Tropicalia was also conceived with the intent of divulge the Latin music culture. We can organise Latin and Brazilian percussion workshop for university, public and private colleges. The seminars are open to people of any age.

"Very proactive, positive, individuals who did a great job working with our promotion team to raise awareness of the activity and help to create an excellent and memorable live brand experience. Very realistic, helpful and flexible. Definitely we will use them again."

"We always recommend Tropicalia to clients who wish to create a party atmosphere. The Latin sound transports you to images of long hot summer nights and is guaranteed to get everyone on the dance floor. They are extremely professional, and reliable and their ability to work as a small band to a full production show with dancers makes them the perfect choice for all types of events or residencies."
