

Good Times

The Good Times are one of London's finest party bands, specialising in Weddings and Corporate Events. They feature the cream of London's top professional young musicians. During an evening's entertainment they play a huge range of classic hits covering many styles of music guaranteed to make your event a special one.

Every member of the band has a degree in music and are all busy professionals in their various fields. Credits include sessions for pop recordings and film scores, writing and arranging for top recording artists, touring internationally with orchestras and musicals, as well as appearances at Ronnie Scott's jazz club.

As you will hear from the demo tracks the standard of musicianship is excellent, but what you also get with The Good Times is a completely reliable service and a fantastic, high energy, live band that is committed to making your party an evening to remember.
