

Spy Candy

Spy Candy are three guys and three girls (Harmony, Rhapsody & Melody), who give the band both male and female lead singers, plus up to four backing singers.

Female lead vocals
 Male lead vocals, plus guitar, keyboard and percussion
 Female bass guitar/vocals
 Male lead guitar/vocals
 Male keyboard/vocals
 Female drummer

The band is FULLY LIVE - what the audience hears all comes from the musicians on stage.

Costumes - are from the Austin Power's and Charlie's Angels movies, along with more costume changes during the show. Sticking with the spy film theme, we also have a special guest appearance from agent 007 Bosely Williams (Robbie's big brother) who performs a "Millennium" sequence of Robbie Williams songs and who is then joined by guest Kylie Men-Oggle for "Kids".

Based in the North West of England, we perform all over the UK as well as abroad.

Gear - 4000 watt Ad Lib PA system with a 20 channel mixing desk. We use equipment from the latest hi-tech stuff to ancient valve amplifiers, with Fender guitars and Korg and Roland Keyboards. Fully self-contained and requiring only standard power points.

Light Show - We provide a light show, which can include smoke (specially fire alarm compatible!) - all optional to suit the venue and the audience.

History - Five of the guys and gals in the band have been playing in working bands for many years.

Dave ("Charlie") has been playing in bands since the 60's, and appeared on Granada TV with his band in 1968 (before Charlie's Angels in 1976!). He also taught the younger ones all he knows - which took about 10 minutes.

Lynn ("Harmony") has been playing the bass since she was 9 years old and appeared on National TV in "New Faces", along with her brother Dave ("Austin") in the same band. Dave was also an original member of the boyband 'Our Kid' who had a number 2 hit in 1976 with "You Just Might See Me Cry" and both Lynn and Dave have been in bands with Ian McNabb (Icicle Works) and Chris Sharrock (now Robbie Williams' drummer).

Samantha ("Rhapsody") can't be parted from her drum kits for more than a few days and has been playing them for many years.

Neil ("Dr Evil") is classically trained and has been playing keyboards for 15 years and been in working bands for 10 years.

Although Kelly ("Melody") is the youngest member of the band, she has already worked as a session singer at Pete Waterman studios.

Spy Candy are an ideal band choice for your James Bond party or 007 themed event. The theme songs from the James Bond movies are magnificent and memorable, but in themselves they don't provide a good choice if you are looking for a dancing/party atmosphere. Its not a good idea to play these songs unless you want your audience to remain seated. We have performed many Bond theme nights and our playlist will work far better.

Our broad Spy Movie approach - covering James Bond, Austin Powers, Mission Impossible and Charlie's Angels - fits in perfectly, along with more specific things such as opening with Paul McCartney's Live & Let Die, good use of an up tempo version of the 007 guitar riff theme and a Robbie Williams Millennium dance medley. Additional costumes from the Bond Movies' characters are also added - but you win a prize if you can tell the difference between the evil villain Blofeld in You Only Live Twice and Dr Evil from Austin Powers - complete with identical cat!

Crazy in love - Beyonce Knowles
Get This Party Started - Pink
Feel Good Time - Pink
Fighter - Christina Aguilera
Gold Theme - Austin Powers
This will be (an everlasting love) - Natalie Cole
Lady Marmalade - Moulin Rouge
Live & Let Die - Paul McCartney & Wings
Fallin' - Alicia Keys
Got to have your love - Liberty X
Why don't you just call me - Alicia Keys
Sleeping with the lights on - Busted
Respect - Aretha Franklin
Not that Kind - Anastasia
We will rock you - Queen
Men in Black II - Will Smith
Work it out - Beyonce Knowles
Rock DJ - Robbie Williams
Kids featuring Kylie Men-oggle
Millennium - Robbie Williams
Back for good - Robbie Williams
Angels - Robbie Williams
Superstition - Stevie Wonder
One way or another - Blondie
Saturday Nights Alright - Elton John and many more.....