"It is almost impossible to pick out any particular item...some of the highlights were Christopher's thrilling 'Toreador Song' from Carmen, Steven's magical singing in 'Music of the Night' from Phantom of the Opera, which he and Emma then followed with the atmospheric duet 'All I Ask of You' and Emma's beautifully sung 'Summertime' from 'Porgy and Bess'...The three singers sang wonderfully in ensemble finishing the evening on a high note with a trio version of the opera favourite 'Nessun dorma'. An encore was then called for, and was delivered with a light hearted 'O Sole Mio' sending the ecstatic audience home with a laugh and a smile!"

"We were treated to arias, songs, duets and a trio from world's favourite Operas and West End Shows, there really was something for everyone. Steven and Christopher's 'Pearl Fishers Duet' was spellbinding... Emma's exciting rendition of 'I Could Have Danced All Night' had the audience dancing in their seats. Amoroso's wonderful show could not fail to delight anyone who loves music."

"Chris Thornton - Holmes rich Baritone soon had the audience clapping along to his exciting rendition of the Toreadors Song from Carmen. Emma then gave us a beautiful interpretation of 'summertime' from Porgy and Bess, with some stunning top notes. Steven's 'O Sole Mio' had the audience singing along and finished on a ringing high note...These singers' warm personalities endeared them to the audience who cheered for more of the same."
