

Luca Salmone

As a trained vocalist, Luca first began his career in Europe where he established himself as a skilled vocal entertainer. On returning to the UK Luca continued his vocal training before becoming a professional vocalist in the North West of England.

Luca is now fully established in the North of England and Wales and provides regular performances for the Thistle Hotel group, where his Swing show is most popular. He travels to all other parts of the UK, performing at weddings and other corporate events.

Luca's vocal talent is only surpassed by his versatility, which has allowed him the flexibility in branching out to various clientele. His extensive repertoire and professional manner allow him to compliment any occasion.

Luca has a natural and unique vocal sound that has been nurtured by his drive for perfection and his true love for singing.

Luca added an extra special "Something" to our wedding day. He is extremely talented and very professional. All of our guests commented how fantastic his performance was, some didn't even realise we had hired a singer and thought he was a CD. Following our wedding, two different sets of guests booked him for their big day!

We have always found him to be accommodating and he has the professionalism to adapt his repertoire according to his audience. I would have no hesitation in using his services for any future events that require his skills."
