Consistently mesmerising audiences worldwide for two decades. Lewis Gates uncannily captures the very essence of Elvis Presley's voice. The King was blessed with a four octave vocal range. Unbelievably Lewis has that exact same range. Added together with mannerisms and a stage persona so powerful, you could easily be watching the Legend himself. You simply will not have witnessed an Elvis tribute like this before !

Lewis is eagerly anticipating touring again with the incredible Beale St. Band and Dancers. All the musicians were hand picked and together they reproduce that famous dynamic Memphis/Vegas sound that is so essential to create the illusion of Elvis being back in the building. Watch out for the fireworks!

This Las Vegas extravaganza really does recreate all the excitement of an Elvis Presley concert. With high tech lighting effects, replica stage suits, backdrops, strobe lights and smoke. All the razzamatazz of a U.S Presidential election, flags and all. From 'Suspicious Minds' to 'Burning Love' to 'Jailhouse Rock' the joint is jumping. Forty classic songs are performed to perfection.

All eighteen No.1 hits. Even songs that The King himself covered like 'Bridge Over Troubled Water' and 'Proud Mary'. The show closes with Lewis performing 'An American Trilogy' amidst the swirling lights and smoke, his legs apart, cape outstretched. The thunderous drums reach their climax, the moment is almost spiritual. For the Elvis fans the moment is emotional, for the non believers they experience the sheer power of Presley.

Make no mistake, this isn't just another tribute show, it really is an event, second to none!!!

Denis Hedlund, a close friend of Elvis's agent Colonel Tom Parker, commented the following after seeing his show:

"I've seen Elvis many times in Vegas. I closed my eyes and the King was back. Lewis has the voice of Elvis - His performance blew my mind"

Leonardo Di Caprio - you should try The States, you're better than the Elvis's we've got back home, Always On My Mind was just the best.

Bob Carruthers (Managing Director, Classic Rock Productions) - I've seen Elvis Presley in Las Vegas lots of times - I closed my eyes and the king was back - Lewis has the voice of Elvis

Uriah Heep (70's Rock Legends) - We wanted the best entertainment at our Platinum Award party at Planet Hollywood. Elvis is still the King and Lewis has got to be The King of Impersonators – Elvis Rocks through Lewis Gates

Steve Morgan (Managing Director of Redrow Homes) - What an awesome performance! Thank you for making my 50th birthday One that I shall never forget. I would recommend you to anyone

Matthew Sheldon (Britannia Building Society) - Lewis you seem to get better and better every time we book you. You are a showman in every sense of the word, Elvis would have been proud

Julie Brookes (Elvis Fan, Cheshire) - Your performance at Congleton Town Hall was fantastic. The theatre show with the band was better than we ever expected. It's hard to explain what its like unless you are actually there. Can't wait for the next one
