

Shabeen

Shebeen are the well established (1988) and popular Hampshire based (will travel) Irish folk band playing regularly at pubs, clubs, parties, weddings, festivals and corporate events.

The band currently has four principal members, and are primarily a singing band with the ability to throw in Ceilidh instrumentals with calling when dancing is requested.

In addition to the core repertoire of traditional Irish folk, the band also performs a wide variety of other songs, as fits the occasion.

'Very professional, as note perfect as can be, presented with fun and laughter and if it's Ceilidh you're after – they are the BEST of Breed (and all so very NICE with it!). I dare you to sit still whilst they are on stage? They stir the emotions across the boards.'

'Shebeen came back to give us another excellent night and demonstrated again their ability to get things going. They are a fine example of how good a combination of effort can be turned into a talent to entertain. It's a pity that there are not more club bands like Shebeen.'

'Our members really enjoyed your music at the Irish Gourmet Dinner and we will definitely be in touch if we run a similar dinner again'.
