

Odyssey String Quartet

The Odyssey String Quartet was formed in the spring of 1995. The players, although London based are willing to travel to venues all over the world.

Dedicated to making every occasion into something very special. The players all trained at the royal Academy of Music.

They have worked with many of the country's leading chamber musicians, including Emmanuel Hurwitz, Raphael Wallfisch, Michael Hurwitz, Siegmund Nissel, Stephen Tees and Jan Schlapp. They have also received coaching from the Maggini, Alborni, Endellion, Aeolian and Chilingirian Quartets.

They have provided music for a host of satisfied clients at weddings, anniversary celebrations and a variety of charity, corporate and private functions. Their repertoire ranges from light classical music to popular favourites and can include arrangements of popular wedding music with trumpet.

The Quartet is happy to consider extending its requirements to meet the specific requirements of any particular event. This versatility enables them to accommodate the wishes of the individual client, bringing a level of care, professionalism and joie de vivre that is sure to delight.
